

NO CRUSADE FOR ALDERMEN.

Two Motormen for "L" Trains, Transfer Tickets for Delayed Passengers and Fenders for Automobiles, Their Demand.

ARTIST POWERS GAVE HINT.

Railroad Committee of the Board Determined to Safeguard More Effectually the Lives and Comfort of Those Who Travel Daily.

Two motormen for each Elevated train operated by electricity.

Life-saving fenders for automobiles. Transfer tickets for passengers delayed by accident or blockades, enabling passengers to proceed by the nearest or most available line of cars.

These three matters were taken up for discussion to-day by the Railroad Committee of the Board of Aldermen.

Besides being regarded as a necessary precaution to have two instead of one motorman in control of the six-car trains now run on the Elevated structure, a humanitarian impulse prompted the presentation of the two-motorman idea to the Aldermanic board. It was done in the interests of the old engineers of the road, and their brethren, who, by reason of the supplanting of the locomotive by the motor, will not be able to hold their employment under the present system.

To Help Old Employees.

The fact that the company is enabled now to run trains of six cars is offered as an indication that every fifth engineer and fireman can be dropped from the payroll and not cripple the service by any means. Hence the resolution to compel the Elevated railroad company to place two motormen in control of the trains.

This is regarded as a safety and accident preventative measure. The proposed new ordinance is similar to the law which demands the presence of two pilots in the pilot-house of a ferry-boat while in service.

Owing to the number of complaints which have reached the Aldermen from persons who have been compelled to pay two fares because of some accident to a trolley car or a blockade on the road, no provision being made by the trolley companies to give exchange tickets or transfers to the delayed passengers, an effort will be made by the railroad committee to pass a resolution covering this matter.

Fender cranks will be in the seventh heaven of delight when the committee takes up the consideration of the resolution compelling owners of automobiles to adopt some effective life-saving and injury-preventing device. The idea which was humorously crystallized in a recent "Tom" Powers cartoon was by that medium called to the attention of the Aldermen. One of the board refused to look upon the cartoon in the manner in which it was presented, saying:

Not Funny to Him.

"I don't see anything funny in it. It's a good idea and is going to make these automobile fenders put fenders on their skyrocket machines."

He was as good as the word and his resolution was presented and referred to the Railroad Committee. He embodied in it also the provision that any vehicle or car, self-propelled, shall be equipped with a suitable fender. This applies to surface trolley cars, which are provided with fenders which neither save life nor prevent injury.

The fender experts were all on hand when the committee convened, and a regular national exhibit of fender devices in model form and original size was presented.

DEVERY BLOCKS DALTON'S WAY.

All-Night Wrangle Over Nomination of Successor to Justice Stiner in the Eighth.

"Sitting Bull Devery still holds the fave beds," said William Dalton, leader of the Eleventh Assembly District, wearily, to-day. "We wrangled till early morning and then adjourned until to-night, and I don't see that we are any nearer the nomination of a candidate for Municipal Justice in the Eighth Judicial District than we were two days ago."

By the unwritten laws of Tammany the successor to the late Justice Joseph Stiner, who was from the Eleventh District, should be an Eleventh District man, but the Ninth District leader has a hungry lot of followers and precious few places to distribute among them.

Leader Keahon and Senator Barney Martin thought they had Devery's promise that he would help them to nominate a man, but the Eleventh District leader was argumentative, pleading with Keahon and the two Martins, who voted with Carroll against the election of Murphy to the Tammany leadership.

"I've got to land this man," he pleaded with Keahon. "I am out for the young men and I am out for the young men. I'd be committing suicide not to stand by and elect Gibbons."

If the convention fails to nominate to-night, a candidate will have to be named by the board, and it is probable that he will be placed in the regular Tammany column.

NO PENS AT ELLIS ISLAND.

Ex-Commissioner Fitchie Sharp-ly Denies Charges of Cruel, Improper and Illegal Treatment of Immigrants.

HE ANSWERS ALL CHARGES.

Under His Administration, He Declares, No Allegations of Bribery Were Ever Made to Him, and Rudeness and Uncleanliness Rebuked.

Former Inspector of Immigration Thomas Fitchie does not like some of the charges made against the department under his administration which have been included in the report of the present incumbent, William Williams, in the first annual report of the latter. The former Commissioner, through his attorneys, Hatch & McCook, has issued a long statement in answer to the charges made against him.

Mr. Fitchie says that under his administration the inspectors did always under the rules of the department. In one instance an inspector leaving his post and giving signed cards to the interpreters had been given a severe reprimand. He denies any arbitrary holding of immigrants by inspectors. Regarding the assertion by Mr. Williams that Mr. Fitchie's inspectors discharged persons held for special inquiry "according to their whims," Mr. Fitchie says that in certain cases where it would be "foolish red-tape to trouble the board," the inspector was allowed to discharge immigrants. A memorandum of reasons was always supplied. Mr. Fitchie asserts that under his administration no report of bribery was ever made to him.

All Rudeness Denied.

Mr. Fitchie denies in general any rudeness on the part of any of his inspectors; that the Boards of Special Inquiry, "through independent tribunals," were interfered with by the executive officer, that only the best available material was used in the make-up of these boards.

Regarding the system, Mr. Fitchie upholds it in every respect. He denounces the use of the word "pens" to describe the immigrants' quarters when he was in charge. He declares untrue the assertion that "railroad passes were issued to a demoralized extent."

Mr. Williams's boast that he had found and returned to their places 180 missing medical certificates of immigrants admitted in 1900, is also answered by Mr. Fitchie. The latter says that these certificates referred to persons kept in the hospitals, and who were ordered instantly deported by T. V. Powderly, who was then in charge of the steamboat companies, but later allowed by him to remain at the expense of the United States government fund.

Says Cleanliness Ruled.

Relative to the feeding department, Mr. Fitchie says that it was scrupulously clean, twice a day, when the crowds were large, and once every day, even when the crowd was small. The charge that immigrants were compelled to buy bags of food and water at exorbitant prices for what they bought is refuted by Mr. Fitchie. In closing his statement Mr. Fitchie pleads that the charges made by Mr. Williams are identical with those made at the time of the sample investigation, two years ago, and dropped as groundless. The answers made by Mr. Fitchie cover every charge included in Mr. Williams's report.

CHINA LOSES A RULER.

Tao Mu, Eunuch's Foe, Second Viceroy to Die Within Fortnight. HONGKONG, Oct. 10.—Tao Mu, Viceroy of the Provinces of Kwangtung and Kwangsi, is dead.

Advices brought to Tacoma, Wash., on Sept. 10 by the steamer Victoria were to the effect that Tao Mu had been forced to resign and retire to private life, and that the bitter and determined attacks made upon him by the eunuchs of the palace at Peking, whose hatred he had incurred.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played-out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a shiny, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harrison, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed, and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, this producing catarrh of the stomach. Modern medicine has prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but to-day I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found fresh appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

THE BEST READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING—you can buy.

That thousands of men in and around New York should come to Vogel Brothers' at the first thought of Fall clothes shows a spirit of public confidence that we are mightily proud of. The past has taught the public to come here for all that's new and best in clothing—they rely on us to tell them what is to be worn. Here they find the new things first. The new styles brought out we bring out. Here are all the new types of sack suits in both the military and regular style, and our new 3-button double-breasted sack, which we speak of in detail below. The perfect fit of our clothing has put them on a par with the highest-priced custom made clothes—the broad concave shoulders, the long, narrow, snug-fitting collars, the careful workmanship which extends to every little detail, cause our clothing to always retain its original shape and style—these are features which distinguish our clothing from the ordinary ready-made sort. Our styles may be copied—but not the fit of our clothing. We make all our clothing in our own workrooms, we sell it direct to you, which means better clothing at less money than you can get elsewhere.

OUR NEW THREE-BUTTON DOUBLE BREASTED SACK SUITS.

The young men of New York need pay no high tariff prices to fine custom tailors for style—here it is, with broad concave shoulders, long, narrow, snug-fitting collars and lapels, trousers very wide, at one-third less than fine custom tailors' prices. Read this list:

At $15. The new 3-button double-breasted, made from rich, soft-feeling blue and black Thibets. Not even of the most ordinary material could you get one for less than $20.

At $17, $18. The new long roll 3-button double-breasted; made of handsome smooth and rough finished worsteds in smart greens, olives, browns and fancy patterns.

MEN'S FALL OVERCOATS.

The little talk above about the fit of our clothing is exemplified in these overcoats. The shoulders are broad, the collars snug-fitting and the bodies are liberally loose. Altogether they are many garments, with a degree of character and dignity that you don't get in ordinary clothing.

At $10. A special sale of short box coats, cut full and loose, made from black, olive and tan covers. Worth $15.

At $15. A special sale of medium length black Thibet overcoats, silk lined throughout to edge of lapel. Worth $25. Special at $15.

At $12. Raincoats, absolutely waterproof, in gray and tan. 50 inches long.
